

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 84-1923.

Charles B. Meyers.

Seldovia.

February 24, 1923.

- - - - - 9

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, Charles B. Meyers, whose home office is at Seldovia, Alaska, is hereby authorized to operate his floating plant for the canning of salmon and clams for commercial purposes at Paulie Creek, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the permittee may operate two salmon traps, the locations of which shall be selected from the three sites marked on a chart submitted in connection with his application, and shall advise the Bureau of Fisheries as to the locations selected. One thousand (1,000) fathoms of gill nets and five beach seines may also be operated, and fish may be purchased of any individuals obtaining permits to fish for salmon.
2. That the permittee may operate, pending further investigation, on any clam beds in Cook Inlet, except on the beach extending for a distance of two miles on each side of the mouth of Paulie Creek, where the Pioneer Canneries, Inc., have exclusive privilege to operate.
3. That the pack shall not exceed five thousand (5,000) cases of salmon of all species, and three thousand five hundred (3,500) cases of clams, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.
4. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
5. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

C. H. HUSTON.

Assistant Secretary of Commerce.
